THE LAFAYETTE INVESTMENT FUND, L.P.

has sold its preferred stock investment in

PODS, Inc.

a Clearwater, FL-based provider of mobile storage and moving solutions

About PODS, Inc.

PODS, Inc., based in Clearwater, FL is an innovative market leader in the mobile storage and moving services market. The company operates and franchises portable on-demand storage and moving businesses across the United States. PODS, with its patented hydraulic delivery system, provides a convenient and cost-effective alternative to typical mini-storage and moving options by delivering storage space directly to the customer's door.

In December 2003, Hunt Private Equity Group completed an equity investment in PODS, the proceeds of which were partially used to fund the company's national expansion plan.

About Hunt Private Equity Group, Inc.

Hunt Private Equity Group is one of the Dallas-based private equity groups investing on behalf of the Ray L. Hunt family. The firm invests equity capital in middle-market, consumer-oriented companies with a proven business model seeking a value-added financial partner to support their continued growth or to finance a buyout or recapitalization. Additional information on Hunt Private Equity Group is available at <http://www.huntpeg.com>.
